President's Corner*By: Judy Holcomb, Ph.D., CHAE

Fellow HFTP Mid-Florida Chapter Members,

Well it's back to school for those of you who have school age kids and us poor souls who had the summer off J. As I prepare for the new school year I think of all the incoming freshmen students and what they will be like. Will they be eager, lazy, motivated, and/or enthusiastic? Will they stay awake during my lectures? Not unlike my previous employees, I have certain expectations of my students. However, with students I don't get a chance to hire/choose them. Although many don't, I have hope for the upcoming generation. I find when people hear that I'm a university professor they start with the rant "what is wrong with our youth today"? "They want everything handed to them, are lazy, unmotivated, etc.". This is usually coming from a successful individual. I say to them "think back when you were 19, what were your priorities?" They usually think for a minute and say something like partying or getting a girl/boyfriend. Of which I answer back to them; exactly! At this age the frontal lobe of the brain is still developing and will not be fully developed until around the age of twenty five. The frontal lobe controls reasonable thinking and provides the ability to connect actions with consequences. So, the next time you're dealing with one of your young employees or interviewing someone young, remember this. Maybe it will make dealing with them a little easier for you.

This month we had our board appreciation dinner. I am so blessed to work with so many great and dedicated people. Please, next time you are at a meeting and see one of the board members or officers, please thank them for the time and commitment they have made to YOUR organization.

Two months and counting till HFTP National convention in NEW ORLEANS.

Have a great month.

Thank you all for your continued involvement in the Greatest Chapter in the HFTP Universe!

Respectfully,

Judy

Member Spotlight
Ed Martin

Ed Barton has over 30 years of experience in the hospitality industry beginning with Westin at The Plaza Hotel in NYC as the Assistant Executive Steward then moving on to Assistant F&B Cost Analyst. He continued his career in Food & Beverage operations in various positions with TGI Friday's, Bennigan's and Red Lobster from Chicago to California. He formed a restaurant consulting company with his brother and took on several projects from distressed businesses to new builds including three of his own. In 2006 he joined Robert Half International as a contract accountant and relocated to Daytona Beach. He joined Pyramid Hotel Group as Senior Assistant Controller at the Hilton Daytona Beach and became part of several task force teams for transitions. Ed is now the Complex Controller of Alena Hospitality, a new management and ownership group based in Orlando with assets in multiple states. His responsibilities are staffing, training and the accounting operations of the individual hotels, to include the production of periodic financial reports, maintenance of an adequate system of accounting records, and a comprehensive set of controls and budgets designed to mitigate risk and enhance the accuracy of the company's reported financial results. In his spare time he enjoys riding on the beach, swimming and golf.

Mid - Florida Board member Christine Cipar presents Ed with the coveted HFTP-Mid-Florida padfolio and welcomes him to the chapter.

Leadership Summit Mission:

The mission of this conference is to provide the leadership skills necessary to increase chapter's success and to facilitate communication between HFTP chapters, members, staff and HFTP Board of Directors. The Leadership Summit Conference allows chapter representatives to participate in motivational educational sessions and group activities to help achieve chapter goals. Contact any Board member for details.

ABOUT HFTP — Hospitality Financial and Technology Professionals

HFTP, Austin, Texas, USA and Maastricht, The Netherlands, founded in 1952, is the global professional association for financial and technology personnel working in hotels, clubs and other hospitality-related businesses. HFTP provides first class educational opportunities, research and publications to more than 4,500 members globally including, the premiere hospitality technology conference HITEC — founded in 1972.

HFTP also awards the only hospitality specific certifications for accounting and technology — the Certified Hospitality Accountant Executive (CHAE) and the Certified Hospitality Technology Professional (CHTP) designations.

HFTP History

HFTP's roots stem from a number of state-centered accountant associations who thought it would be beneficial if they created a national network. Through the support of both the Texas Hotel Accountants Association and the Hotel Accountants of New York, the formal organization of the National Association of Hotel Accountants was formed on October 26, 1952 in New York City at the Hotel Lexington. Today HFTP has over 4,500 members.

In order to better reflect the association's changing member demographics, the association has been known under four different names:

- The National Association of Hotel Accountants (NAHA)
- The National Association of Hotel-Motel Accountants (NAHMA)
- The International Association of Hotel Accountants (IAHA)
- Hospitality Financial and Technology Professionals (HFTP)

HFTP Membership

HFTP membership is available to individuals interested in the hospitality industry. Since HFTP focuses on individual professional development, membership is individually-based, not company-based. Job titles of members include controller, director of finance, CFO, IT director and more. They work for organizations like clubs, hotels, resorts, hotel management companies and other hospitality businesses.

Members of HFTP receive award-winning publications, industry research, online networking tools, chapter affiliation, online education, member pricing to HFTP conferences and events, career advancement opportunities, networking events and much more.

Since opening their doors on June 23, 1996, more than 40,000 children with chronic illnesses and their moms, dads, brothers and sisters have experienced the magic of Camp Boggy Creek, all at no cost to their families. Camp Boggy Creek is a magical place where creativity is inspired, spirits are uplifted and lives are changed forever.

The HFTP Mid-Florida chapter is a 501 (c) 6 organization. Contributions are tax deductible if they qualify as a business expense. Please contact your tax advisor if you need more information. All net proceeds will directly benefit Camp Boggy Creek, a not-for-profit organization, where children coping with chronic illness can just be kids!
